Police Starve Chauffeur Speeding Auto for Medicine for Dying Mother.

EVEN BREAD IS DENIED.

Aged Father Took It to the Prisoner but the Sergeant at Station - House Turned Him Away.

Arrested for speeding his automobile on his way to procure medicine for his old mother, who is dying of heart disease, Raoul Collen, a young French chauffeur, of No. 17 West Sixty-fifth street, was kept in a police cell for more than twenty hours without food of any kind.

In response to a message, the young man's father brought him bread, but the desk sergeant of the West Sixty-eighth street station refused to permit the prisoner to Collen was arrested Sunday by Bicycle Policeman Gillis at Fifty-fourth street and Eighth avenue too late for that day's session of court. He was placed in a cell and remained there until 11 o'clock yesterday, when he was arraigned before Magistrate Meade in the West Side Court and then held for trial in $300 bail for the Court of Special Sessions. It was not until he was formally placed n prison that he was fed.

Under Amnesty, Among Those on Morro Castle-Emillius Terry a Passenger.

Mrs. Squires, wife of the American Minister to Cuba, came up from Havana on the Ward Line steamer Morro Castle, which arrived to-day. When Dr. Doty boarded the ship at Quarantine and began sorting out the immunes from those who are to be held for five days' obseration at the summer Quarantine it was disclosed that Mrs. Squires had neevr ulated for that disease during her short residence in the Cuban capital.

Consequently she was placed among the other detained passengers and sent to Hoffman Island. Charles F. W. Neely, who, with other Americans serving penal terms, was reently liberated under the general amnesty act, was also detained at Quaranine for the same reasons.

Emillius Terry, former Cuban Secre tary of Agriculture, was also a passen-ger on the Morro Castle. Mr. Terry presented his resignation to President Palma on Aug. 26 and comes here en comts for Europe.

The report was cabled from Havana that immediately on arrival here Mr. Terry would marry the famous Havana beauty, Sylvia Alfonso, who has been spending the summer here, and that hey would sail on their honeymoon to France.

France.

Miss Alfonso was at the pier to meet Mr. Terry, but he denied the truth of the report that they are to be married at once, adding that he was going to sail for Europe to-morrow.
